Valob has hither to been reliable, that the long hoped for indersement of Mr. Hill by President Cleveland was about to materialize.

The conditions, however, under which this head of the administration would inderes the Gubernatorial candidate were, it was said, as follows:

Sonater Charles R. Faulkner must straighten out the Congressional nominations muddle in such a manner as to show conclusively that the State party is in line with National politics.

Then President Cleveland, according to the same authority, will not only come out openly for Hill, but will even us of ara as to make a speech while in this city, in which he will eulogize Sengtor Hill and plead for his support by all good Democrats.

Mr. Hill's Visitors.

mator Hill's first visitor this morn-was Senator Charles J. Faulkner, , after a short talk with the candi-t, started for the Imperial Hotel, re he was to meet the representa-s of Tammany Hall and the State Ingust and Perry Belmont dropped in see Mr. Hill shortly after Senator ulkner's departure, and they were followed by Gen. John G. Farnsworth, ferson M. Levy, Bourke Cockran, E. Ridgway and Henry W. Brewster, Cayuga County, soorse Walton Green, who, yesterday memon, made the notification speech and anyoralty nomination, came in with ancis M. Scott about 10.30 o'clock, t was evident from the reticence of Mr. Hill's callers after they had left presence that the injunction of sicce had been laid upon them. Cleveland and Hill May Meet.

Brewster said he was convinced the President would take the opinity of declaring himself in favor he State ticket. This statement, a simost immediately after Mr. weer's conversation with Senator this forenoon, lends color to the that the President is coming out oted in favor of the State ticket. Bright of the State ticket is for a state ticket in the president is coming out of the State ticket. WANT TO KILL PEOPLE.

Some amusing particulars of the inventions that have been offered to the French War Office since 1871, says the London Court Journal, have recently been published in a French newspaper. been published in a French newspaper.

been published in a French newspaper, the majority of which are about equal to the Laputan scheme for ploughing fields, namely, by sowing acorns in rows and then turning in pigs to root them up.

One genius sought à patent for the training of squadrons of horseflies. These auxiliaries were to be fed exclusively on blood served up beheath the delicate epidermis of mechanical figures clothed in the uniforms of members of the triple alliance, so that when political relations in Europe were strained, the flies might be given daily a little of the juice of certain poisonous plants, and on actual declaration of war turned out in the path of the enemy.

plants, and on actual declaration of war turned out in the path of the enemy.

Another ingenious person proposed a scheme for educating war dogs. In time of peace he would learn French doss to bite lay figures wearing Prussian helmets, in order that on the outbreak of war the kennels of the whole country might be motilized and let loose on the enemy. Then there are numerous proposals for bridging rivers by means of ropes attached to cannon balls, and a photographer suggests a novel kind of captive shell, which, breaking over the fortified position of an enemy, would disclose a small camera attached to a parachute. The enemy's fortifications would be instantaneously photographed and the apparatus hauled back by the string and the negatives developed at leisure.

Two ideas are very inhuman. One is the scheme of sending large quantities of poisoned needles, as if in charity, to the enemy's generals, who would, of course, distribute them to their forces, and so poison the unfortunate users; and the gither, to charge explosive bullets with pepper.

Two objects are pursued by the inventor of the pepper; its discharge would blind the enemy, and the great demand for the condition in war time would stimuliate the trade of the French colonies and increase the revenue of the country.

There are also many other equally absurd propositions, such as suggestions for making soup by machinery, growing potatoes on barrack roofs in December, and killing whole army corps of Pruesians by post-but they are far too numerous to be mentioned.

Dr. McClintock, of the University of Michigan, has performed experiments which indicate that eggs may become infected with microbes before they are laid, says an exchange. A healthy hen after repeated washings in sterilized colors, was placed in a sterilized cage, As soon as possible after being laid a number of her eggs were placed in sterilized cotton and then in an incubator. All these eggs decayed and swarmed with bacteria. The remaining eggs were taken as soon as laid, and cultures were made from their contents. Some of these culture tubes developed; others remained sterile. After some days the hen was killed, and with proper asseptic precautions cultures tubes developed; others remained sterile. After some days the hen was killed, and with proper asseptic precautions culture tubes were inoculated from various portions of the oviduct. Most of these tubes developed it would thus seem probable that the putrefactive bacteria entered the egg in its passage down the oviduct and before the shell was formed.

Shorts Are Stampeded and the Bulls Einted.

Cotton opened about two points lower this morning. First sales included November at 5.50; December, 5.56 a 5.57; January, 5.59 a 5.61; February, 5.56 a 5.57; March, 5.73; May, 5.90; July, 5.36. Many local traders express a steady improvement in the market.

The market took a sudden upturn just before noon and the shorts were stampeded and covered freely, January selling at 5.74. The shorts are nervous and excited and some of them found difficulty in covering without putting the market upon themselves. The bulls are elated. Sales up to 1 o'clock were 135.000 bales.

Wheat was active. Early sales were at 56 1-4c, for December at New York and 52 5-8c, at Chicago, a decline of about 1-4c. Foreign and local buying was sufficient to hold the markst steady during early tradings. Corn was easier. May opened about 1-4c, lower at 53 1-2c, here and 49 3-4c, in Chicago.
